ART MUSEUMS

The acclaimed Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art and the Kemper Museum of Contemporary Art are home to more than 43,000 works combined.

COUNTRY CLUB PLAZA

Don't miss the romantic Spanish architecture and dazzling fountains of the Plaza, in addition to more than 100 shops and restaurants to explore.

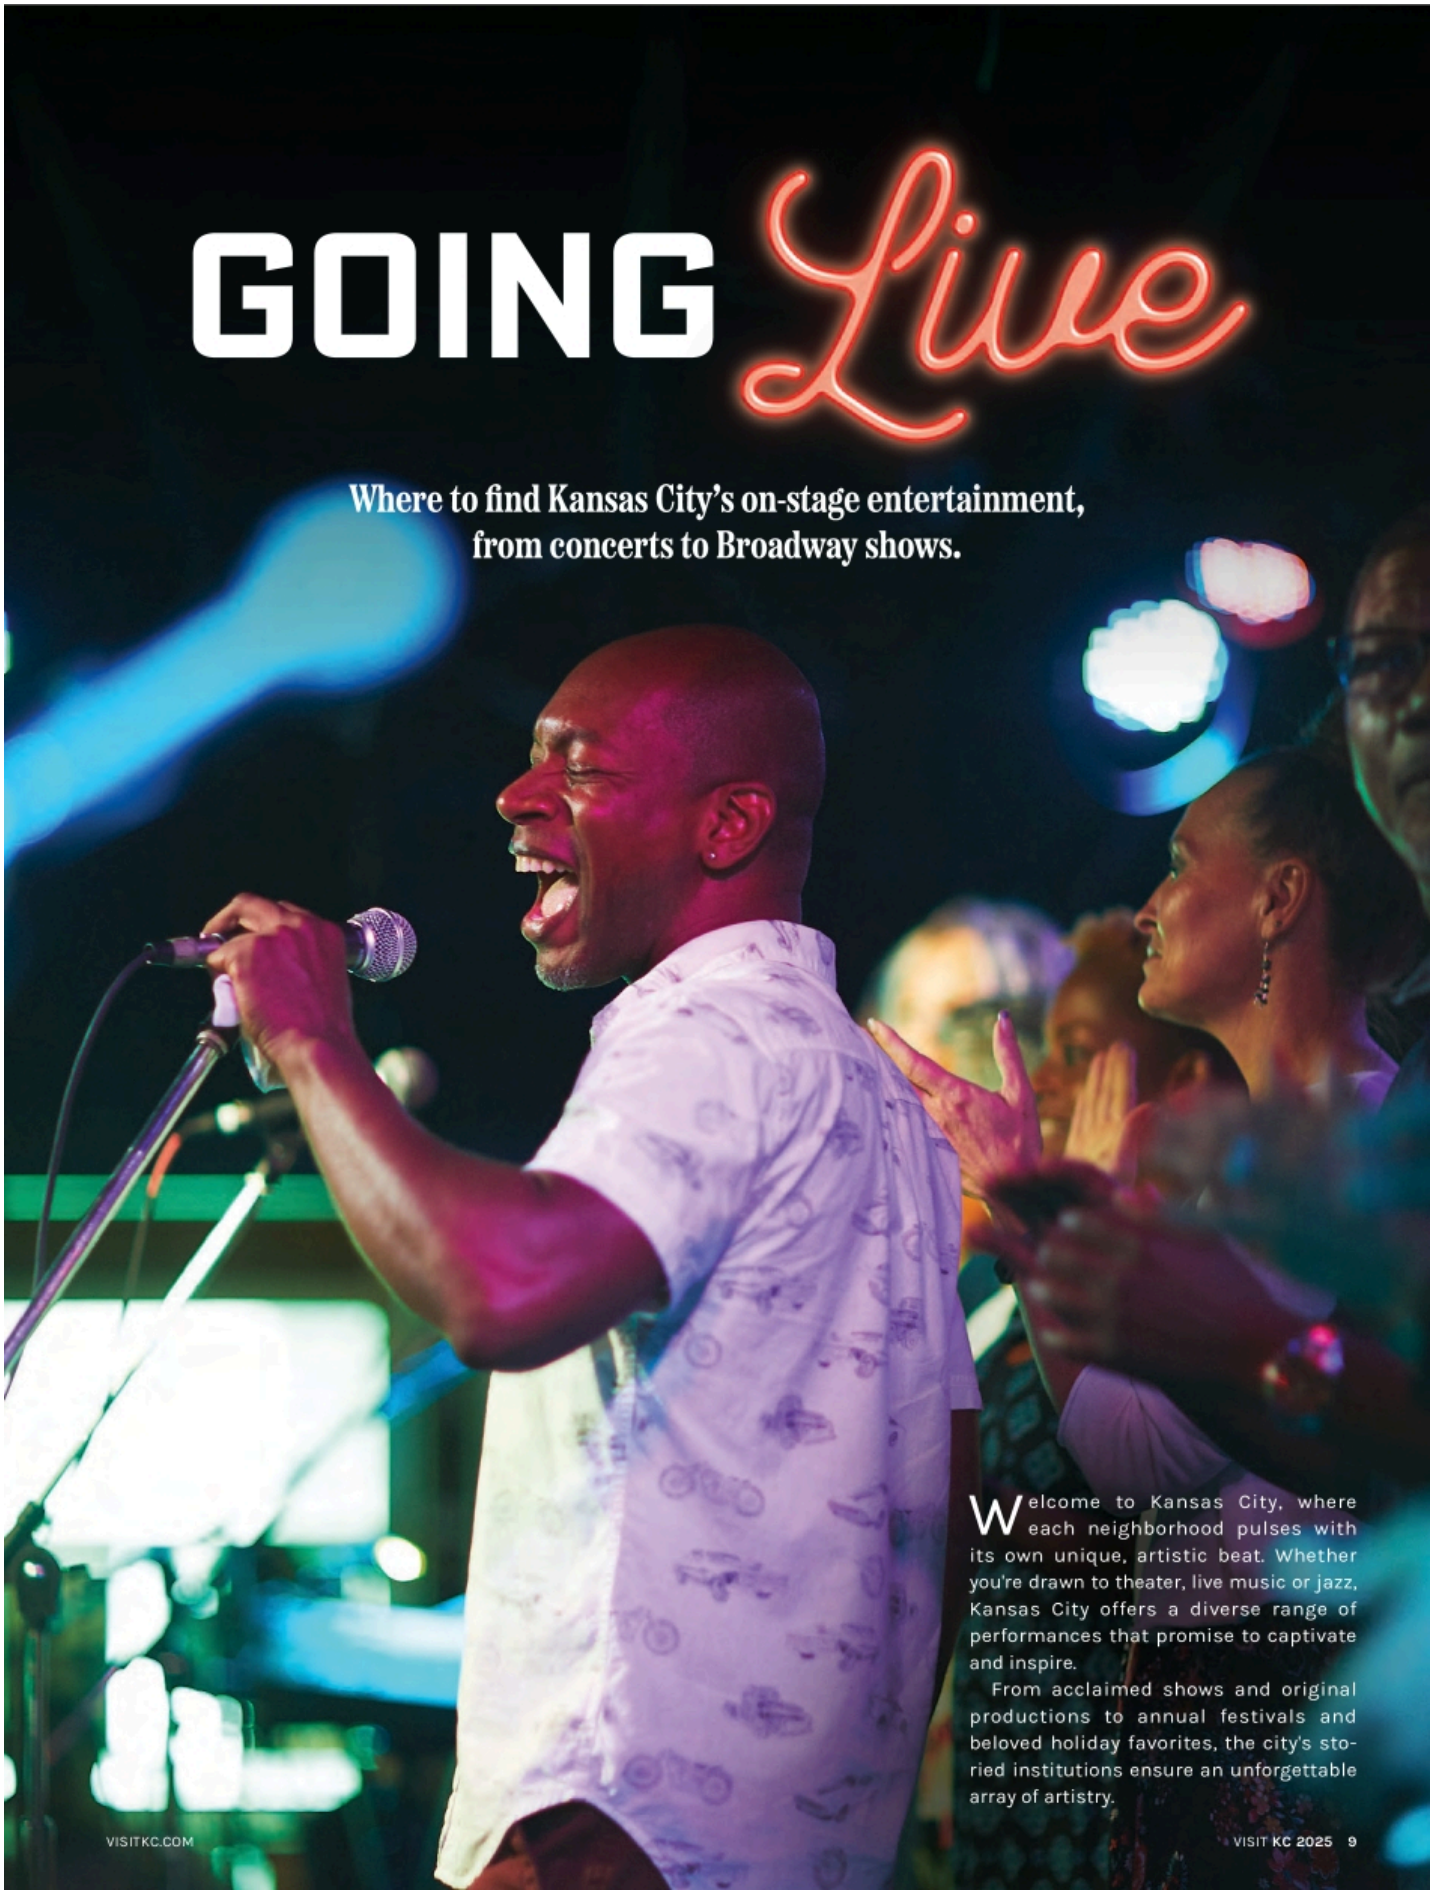

UMKC

Kansas City's Division I university houses high-caliber athletics, intriguing museums and celebrated live performances, all within reach of the endlessly charming Brookside district.

Read more about many of the must-visit neighborhoods within reach via the KC Streetcar on pg. 12.

GOING Live

Where to find Kansas City's on-stage entertainment, from concerts to Broadway shows.

Welcome to Kansas City, where each neighborhood pulses with its own unique, artistic beat. Whether you're drawn to theater, live music or jazz, Kansas City offers a diverse range of performances that promise to captivate and inspire.

From acclaimed shows and original productions to annual festivals and beloved holiday favorites, the city's storied institutions ensure an unforgettable array of artistry.

Gem Theater

KC's Historic Jazz Destination

Immerse yourself in Kansas City's rich jazz history in the renowned 18th & Vine Historic Jazz District, long known for its bustling nightlife and pioneering jazz from artists such as the legendary William "Count" Basie and Charlie "Bird" Parker.

Touted by The New York Times as an interactive paradise, the American Jazz Museum offers a dynamic experience. Featuring numerous listening stations, touch-screen adventures and custom mixing soundboards, visitors can delve into jazz legends and honor their legacy.

You can also experience Kansas City's distinctive sound firsthand at the Blue Room, the museum's working jazz club, or at the Gem Theater, home to special events throughout the year.

For those seeking to relive the glory days of Kansas City jazz, enjoy after-hours jam sessions at the Mutual Musicians Foundation until 5 a.m.

The Ship

THE LEVEE

Since 1965, The Levee has been a beloved institution by locals and visitors alike offering live music, a classic neighborhood bar upstairs and versatile event spaces perfect for any occasion.

THE RIND

The go-to live music venue in North Kansas City, serving up great tunes and comedy for an unbeatable combination.

THE SHIP

At night, The Ship in the West Bottoms transforms into a nautical-themed speakeasy featuring a soulful jukebox and a rotating lineup of music acts several nights a week.

TIN ROOF

Nestled in the heart of Westport, this two-stage live music venue is the perfect place to listen to tunes, enjoy a drink and have a good time.

Kauffman Center for the Performing Arts

Iconic Destinations

Explore the venues where musicals and plays take center stage.

KAUFFMAN CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

Originally a napkin sketch, the Kauffman Center for the Performing Arts has become a Kansas City architectural icon. It is home to the Lyric Opera of Kansas City, the Kansas City Symphony and the Kansas City Ballet, known for its annual performance of The Nutcracker. The center also hosts distinguished national and international performers.

KANSAS CITY MUSIC HALL

The spacious proscenium theater is celebrated for its diverse performances featuring Broadway tours, symphonies, ballets, operas and more. Don't miss the Art Deco lighting fixtures, which inspired the Sky Stations atop Bartle Hall's pylons.

FOLLY THEATER

A beautifully restored historic venue known for its intimate atmosphere and stunning architecture, the Folly hosts a diverse range of performances including comedy shows, theatrical productions and world-class jazz series.

UNICORN THEATRE

This not-for-profit theater has a history of premiering cutting-edge plays and musicals that have never been produced in the area.

KANSAS CITY REPERTORY THEATRE

Experience KC's local talent at "KCRep," the University of Missouri-Kansas City's professional theater where classic productions including The Adventures of Tom Sawyer and A Christmas Carol are put on by both students and professionals.

MUSIC THEATER HERITAGE

Relax after a day of shopping at Crown Center's resident professional theater company, Music Theater Heritage, where you can enjoy classic Broadway musicals accompanied by a live orchestra.

Boulevardia

For the Family

Bring everyone along to these immersive entertainment experiences.

THE COTERIE THEATRE

Introduce theater to the next generation at The Coterie Theatre at Crown Center, recognized by TIME as one of the top five theaters serving families and young audiences in the U.S.

CITY STAGE THEATRE AT UNION STATION

Located in the historic Union Station, this state-of-the-art venue is known for dramas, comedies and musicals, catering to all ages with every seat offering an excellent view.

WHAT IF PUPPETS

Sure to entertain the whole family, What if Puppets showcases innovative storytelling with a mission to inspire play and cultivate connections through puppetry.

Festival Season

Stellar lineups and larger-than-life personalities arrive with the annual events listed below.

BOULEVARDIA

Crown Center transforms into an all-senses destination during this favorite festival. Hosted by Boulevard Brewing Co., it's complete with food trucks, concerts, maker booths, a family carnival and, of course, beer stations that offer local, regional and national craft brews.

KANSAS CITY FOLK FEST

All are welcome with lawn chairs and blankets to the city's grassroots festival, held in the heart of downtown. With song, poetry, dance, crafts and more, the all-day festival has something for everyone to enjoy.

DANCEFESTOPIA

Nestled in rolling hills surrounded by thousands of acres of forest and pristine lake water, Dancefestopia has become one of the largest camping and music festivals in the nation featuring some of the most prominent DJs in the world.

PHASE FEST

Transporting you back to the golden era of '90s and 2000s emo, Phase Fest takes over Legends Field with a punk-rock lineup, art installations, craft food, outdoor experiences and more. Past headliners include Yellowcard, 3OH!3 and Boys Like Girls.

TACOS AND TEQUILA FESTIVAL

A new local favorite, this all-day party blends good vibes and throwbacks. Featuring local taco chefs, tequila tastings and more, it promises a day filled with unique entertainment and a lively atmosphere.

FUTURE STAGES FESTIVAL

The Kauffman Center for the Performing Arts presents a free day of compelling performances, engaging youth-friendly activities and one-of-a-kind entertainment.

NEIGHBORHOODS
KC
TO KNOW
Dine, sip, shop and celebrate in six unique KC destinations.

Percheron Rooftop Bar

CROSSROADS ARTS DISTRICT

Day or night, the options are endless—and just a short walk away—in the art-filled urban district.

The popular destination known for its First Fridays celebrations continues to grow and evolve with countless stellar options inviting you to explore and indulge however you choose. Raise a glass at KC Wineworks, take your pick of dazzlingly beautiful desserts at Christopher Elbow Chocolates, crack open a book (and a beverage) at Afterword Tavern & Shelves, try your hand at pinball and many more classic arcade games at Up-Down or spend your day browsing the must-see art galleries that gave the neighborhood its reputation for creativity.

Perched on a sun-soaked corner of the district, Café Corazón prepares a vast menu of Latin and Native coffee drinks as well as traditional yerba mate. At the south end of the neighborhood, the Freight House features a trio of celebrated dining experiences: authentic Italian dishes at Lidia's, inviting Austrian plates at Grünauer and classic Kansas City fare at Fiorella's Jack Stack Barbecue. Afterward, cross the street to wrap up your night at Big Mood Natural Wines or the Crossroads Hotel's gorgeous Percheron Rooftop Bar.

Make the short walk to the East Crossroads to enjoy more than a handful of breweries, walls emblazoned with colorful murals, and stellar mixed drinks at excellent picks including King G and Chartreuse Saloon. Before you go, check the latest lineup of concerts at GrindersKC. You just might catch one of your favorite national acts playing a show under the stars.

Betty Rae's

RIVER MARKET

One of Kansas City's most charming neighborhoods offers history at every turn.

Weekends in the River Market are defined by smiling shoppers filling their arms with flowers and soaking in the sun as they take in the energy of the area's largest farmers market. With an always-changing rotation of participants, it's a treasured weekend tradition for visitors and locals alike.

The City Market is also home to plenty of options that are open well beyond the weekend farmers market from breakfast burritos at City Market Coffee and sandwiches at Pigwich to spices at Al Habashi Mart and Tikka House. The Arabia Steamboat Museum hosts one of the most unique experiences you'll find in the Heart of America, showcasing the rich contents of an 1800s steamboat that were unearthed and preserved in remarkable condition.

It's hard to find a scene more picturesque than the sights along Delaware Street. Historic buildings and mural-splashed walls contain treasured destinations including Il Lazzarone, a favorite spot for Neapolitan pizza, and River Market Antiques, a towering institution that contains four floors of curious finds. Start your day in the neighborhood with something sweet from Donutology—made even more appealing by its location inside an actual trolley car that used to run along the streets of KC—or snag a scoop from Betty Rae's before you depart.

UNION HILL

Treasures in store include vintage finds, neighborhood bars and favorite keepsakes.

If you're seeking some of the city's most beloved watering holes and low-key hangouts, look no further. Settle in for a round of beers at Tower Tavern or dig into a burger on the patio at Brick House. Start the day getting caffeinated at the Filling Station or head a few blocks down the street for game day on the big screen at Brewer's Corner. For fantastic plant-based comfort food, just look for the eye-catching teal walls that'll indicate you've arrived at The Fix.

If you find yourself intrigued by a mid-century modern aesthetic, Populuxe is a dream. The quirky storefront is packed with a careful selection of furniture, housewares, accessories, vintage clothing, vinyls and more. And don't depart Union Hill without a visit to Made in KC's neighborhood shop where goods of all kinds are emblazoned with Kansas City pride. Sharing the same space, The Black Pantry carries a wide variety of Black-owned goods from all across the country.

Brick House Mural

KC Live!

POWER & LIGHT

Always-on entertainment venues and street festivals make every visit to P&L vibrant.

Live entertainment lies at the heart of this high-energy downtown neighborhood. The Kansas City Live! Block features a year-round concert stage surrounded by two stories of bars, restaurants and entertainment options. The venue welcomes a nonstop roster of performances plus game-day watch parties, special events, holiday celebrations and more.

Across the street, T-Mobile Center plays host to major performers from Olivia Rodrigo to Future, as well as sporting events such as the Big 12 Men's and Women's Basketball Championships. Next door, the College Basketball Experience offers the chance to get in the game with two floors of hands-on hoops challenges, shooting drills and more.

The nearby Midland Theatre (opened in 1927) is one of Kansas City's most memorable concert venues with striking chandeliers and ornate decorations at every turn. If you prefer to catch a show on screen, check the schedule of popular movies showing at B&B Theatres Mainstreet KC.

Power & Light serves as a premier dining destination during your downtown visit. You'll find prime steaks at 801 Chophouse, high-quality seafood at Bristol Seafood + Steak + Social, cozy breakfast dishes at HomeGrown Kansas City and an extensive menu of rolls (and much more) at Blue Sushi Sake Grill.

The Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art

SOUTHMORELAND

The warm, welcoming and historic enclave is headlined by a trio of premier art institutions.

Shrouded in history and lined with stately structures, the Southmoreland area offers encounters with Kansas City's artistic community in timeless fashion.

More than 5,000 years of creativity take on new life inside The Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art. The permanent collection is always free and reaches across continents, housed within an immersive Beaux-Arts structure. Before you depart, step outside to explore the 22-acre Donald J. Hall Sculpture Park, featuring eye-catching pieces that range from a stainless steel tree to a glass labyrinth. The park is punctuated in intriguing fashion by the city's celebrated shuttlecocks.

Just across the street, two more treasured institutions await with further artistry in store. The Kemper Museum of Contemporary Art also boasts free admission and an illustrious display of modern works, anchored by a sun-soaked atrium. The Kansas City Art Institute, where Walt Disney once studied, maintains the Artspace to welcome programming and contemporary exhibitions from a new generation of artists.

The neighborhood's art-inspired flourish can extend to an overnight stay. Check in at The Truitt or The Aida, a pair of historic properties that have been transformed into boutique hotels, or embrace all the original warmth of a 1913 colonial revival mansion at the Southmoreland on the Plaza.

SOUTH PLAZA

Indulge in all-day dining, college athletics and one of KC's most whimsical destinations.

Just beyond the Country Club Plaza, charming neighborhoods and inviting enclaves wait to be explored. During a visit to the South Plaza, start your day at eggtc., snag a slice at Minsky's, settle in for weekend brunch at Third Street Social, or satisfy your sweet tooth with fine chocolates from André's Confiserie Suisse.

Catch a soccer match or basketball game on the University of Missouri-Kansas City's campus where the Roos compete as Kansas City's Division I athletics team, or stop by the adjacent Linda Hall Library. The science, engineering and technology institution boasts a regular lineup of free events and exhibitions, all nestled within a striking 14-acre urban arboretum.

You'll be well rewarded after a stroll south along the Trolley Track Trail. A stately structure on the southern edge of the UMKC campus houses The National Museum of Toys and Miniatures, where an irresistibly curious two-story collection guarantees to delight visitors of all ages.

Continue for a few more blocks to the Crestwood Shops, one of the city's oldest shopping destinations. Here, stunning storefronts contain everything from Italian-inspired plates at Bacaro Primo and French fare at Aixois to striking antiques at Charlecote and hand-selected bottles at Underdog Wine Co.

Charlie Hustle

HEARTS ON OUR SLEEVES

Gear up with Kansas City's local retailers, fashion brands and more.

CHARLIE HUSTLE

Spotted on celebrities, athletes, influencers and even a Backstreet Boy, Charlie Hustle's popular T-shirts showcase a truly iconic symbol of Kansas City. Originally inspired by the patch featured on the sleeve of a 1942 Kansas City Monarchs jersey, the KC heart represents a shared love and passion for the city.

The vintage tees made fresh are modeled after classic designs in sports and popular culture. In addition to the iconic heart tee, Charlie Hustle embodies the spirit of the Midwest, featuring collabs that cheer on local sports teams, benefit local charities and help spread the word about other favorite Kansas City-area businesses. While Charlie Hustle can be found anywhere from the airport to various team stores, visiting the flagship store on the Country Club Plaza is a great way to experience all the brand has to offer.

WESTSIDE STOREY

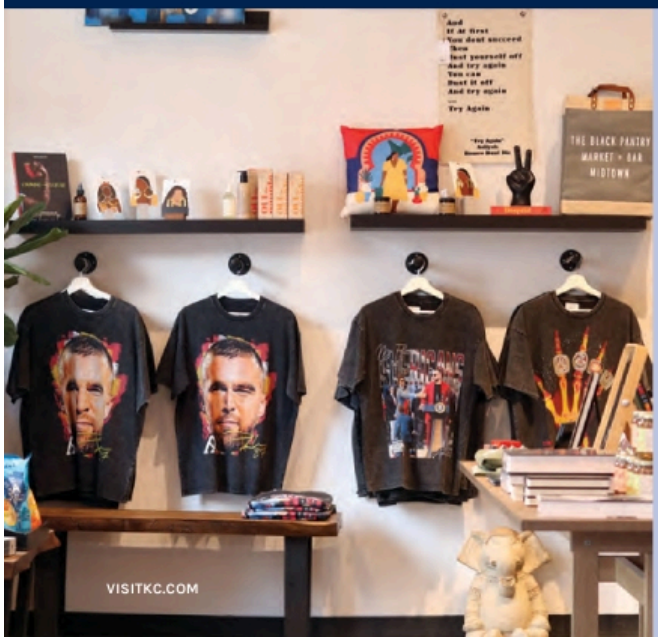

You might have heard of Westside Storey thanks to one of America's favorite pop stars, but it was a longtime local favorite even before it hit the national radar. Tucked in—you guessed it—Kansas City's vibrant Westside neighborhood, this charming boutique captures the spirit of the city with an eclectic mix of vintage and locally made clothing, accessories and gifts. Most known for its carefully curated selection that appeals even to Taylor Swift herself, the vintage shop features pieces for every fan to indulge in a unique piece from decades past.

MADE MOBB

If you're looking for streetwear with a Midwest twist, look no further than Made Mobb. Known for its x KC x hats that are a popular symbol of hometown pride, this once-small business has expanded to include collabs with city staples like the Chiefs, the Current and UMKC.

Founded in 2013, Made Mobb uses streetwear to celebrate Kansas City and push the envelope on what it means to be from the Midwest. In addition to a storefront on Southwest Boulevard, Made Mobb's apparel is also available at local retailers including Halls, Rally House, Made in KC and inside Kansas City International Airport.

THE BLACK PANTRY

Nestled in Midtown's revitalized Union Hill, The Black Pantry offers a shopping experience like no other in Kansas City. This specialty shop is dedicated to showcasing the creativity and craftsmanship of Black makers, creators and artists from across the nation. Since its inception in late 2020, The Black Pantry has filled a vital niche in the local retail scene, merging high-end shopping with a celebration of Black talent.

Today, The Black Pantry is more than just a store—it's a movement. With more than 200 products from Black-owned businesses, shoppers can explore a diverse range of items, from gourmet foods and artisanal crafts to fashion and home decor. The shop also hosts various events and pop-ups, continually fostering connections within the community.

HEARTLAND HISTORY

Take a closer look at the region's rich stories inside the Kansas City Museum.

The moment you arrive at the Kansas City Museum, you can tell it'll be a one-of-a-kind historical encounter. The stately Corinthian Hall, a mansion built in the early 1900s for a local lumber magnate, occupies a tree-lined corner of Northeast Kansas City's Scarritt Renaissance neighborhood. With stately iron gates and towering columns, entering the museum is an unmistakably grandiose experience.

Once you've stepped inside, the institution is sure to immerse and inform. Stained-glass displays, original architectural elements and a stunning central staircase make the museum's interior spaces just as impressive as its facade. Exhibitions reach across three floors to tell the story of Kansas City in rich detail, examining every era of the city's history—from the first Native communities that settled in the area to the Prohibition-defying 1920s and contemporary civic projects that have become iconic KC landmarks. No matter what you love most about the Heart of America, you'll be able to take a closer look here.

Downstairs, Elixir is an old-fashioned soda fountain that serves a menu of classic and creative beverages, plus small bites from local restaurants. Follow the hallway to the Billiard Room, the perfect place for relaxation (or a friendly game of pool) as you take in all the warmth of the well-appointed home.

The Kansas City Museum offers reasons to return all year long. Watch the institution's events calendar for a lineup of celebrations that range from summer concerts on the lawn to holiday festivities inside the brilliantly decorated Corinthian Hall.

General admission to the Kansas City Museum is free every day.

KC Watersports

SOAK UP THE SUN

LEVEL: BEGINNER

Kansas City might not have any oceans nearby, but that doesn't mean you can't head to the beach.

The beach at Lake Olathe is perfect for relaxed swimming and features The Aquapark, a floating obstacle course that lets you jump, slide and play. The marina rents out kayaks, paddleboards and other aquatic equipment.

Area favorites include Longview Lake, Smithville Lake and Blue Springs Lake, all featuring multiple beaches and boat rentals.

If you want to amp it up a level, KC Watersports in Miami County is considered the best wakeboarding destination in the Midwest. Beginners can get their sea legs in the smaller lake while more experienced riders can hone their skills in the larger lake.

LET THE GAMES BEGIN

LEVEL: BEGINNER TO INTERMEDIATE

Challenge your mind and your body at one of KC's active gaming experiences.

Businesses such as BRKTHROUGH and Activate in Overland Park feature dozens of challenge rooms with a tech twist. There are games with lasers, climbing walls and more—think extreme The Floor is Lava or Red Light, Green Light. For competitive players, you can track your points and progress to see how you stack up against the rest of your group or other guests.

Jump into the future with a virtual reality experience at DoubleTap KC, FlipSwitch VR or Sandbox VR. Whether you're going solo or with a team, arcade-style or free-roam, there are plenty of immersive adventures for all ages.

For something a bit milder, try escape rooms, such as The River Market's Breakout KC or the Plaza's new Escape Game, to test your quick thinking and problem-solving skills.

Other great escape experiences include special-effects-heavy Tick Tock Escape Rooms in Overland Park; The Basement, which features live actors in a spooky scenario; and Escape Room KC in Union Station.

BRKTHROUGH

TRY YOUR HAND

LEVEL: BEGINNER TO INTERMEDIATE

Pickleball has taken the nation by storm—and the center of all the action can be found here in Kansas City. More than 35 million have played in recent years as it's become a sport for all ages.

There are now more than 100 public pickleball courts in the KC area. Grab your friends or family—it's a social sport, after all—and hit the court.

For snacks and serves, try these local favorites:

Chicken N Pickle
in North KC and Overland Park

Char Bar in Parkville

SERV in Overland Park

The Sandbox in Kansas City

For a classic court, try these local parks or explore your own neighborhood:

Minor Park in Kansas City

Westboro/Canterbury Park in Liberty

Macken Park in North Kansas City

Bois D'Arc Park in Lenexa

Banner Park in Lee's Summit

Chicken N Pickle

KEEP HOLDING ON

LEVEL: INTERMEDIATE TO EXPERT

It's not about how fast you get to the top, it's about the climb. That's certainly true at KC's indoor rock climbing gyms.

Strength and perseverance are key, but even beginners can learn to climb with the pros. Just grab a harness and climb on.

Learn the basics to bouldering and beyond—or test your skills and speed—at these Kansas City-area climbing gyms:

Sequence Climb in Kansas City

IBEX Climbing Gym in Blue Springs

RoKC in North Kansas City and Olathe

Or grab the whole family and train to be the next ninja warrior at Motus Ninjas. With locations in Lee's Summit and Overland Park, it's the largest obstacle course training gym in the area.

After plenty of practice and research, you might be ready to climb outdoors. Try your hand at Kansas City's Cliff Drive or Swope Park for scenic views, fresh air and an added challenge.

RoKC

DEFYING GRAVITY

LEVEL: INTERMEDIATE

Tour among the treetops and zoom through a lush, green forest at one of Kansas City's adventure parks.

At 143 acres, Zip KC in Bonner Springs features nine zip lines from towers up to 65 feet high—including the longest and fastest line in the region at more than a quarter of a mile.

While you're flying through the sky, enjoy some of the best views in the area. You can even combine the thrill of zip lining with guided hikes in the woods or an obstacle course.

Right in the heart of the city at Swope Park, Go Ape Treetop Adventure combines a zip line canopy tour with a treetop obstacle course for a totally wild, wholly distinctive way to experience the outdoors in Kansas City.

The obstacle course, which is suspended among the trees, is split into five different sections, each with its own customized crossing that allows you to swing, zip and step your way to the end.

If the indoors are more your style, take your family to one of Kansas City's many adventure centers like Urban Air, Sky Zone or Above All for high-energy fun.
